Make Your Event the Talk of the Town With Vancouver's Best Dance Band!

When you hire Famous Players, you get Vancouver's ultimate dance band! Our energetic and talented singers and musicians will have your guests dancing all night!

When you book our dance band, you're not just hiring a group of musicians. You're getting a team of seasoned professionals passionate about making your event a big hit that everyone will talk about for years.

Here are just a few reasons why you should choose our dance band for your next celebration:

Proven track record

We've been in the music industry since 1999, and we've played at countless events of all kinds. From weddings to corporate parties to birthday bashes, we know how to get the party started and keep it going strong — fun, fun, fun!

Wide range of music

Whether you're into classic rock, R&B, pop, or anything in between, we've got you covered. Our dance band has an extensive and unmatched repertoire of songs from every decade, so you can be sure we'll play something for everyone.

Interactive performances

We do more than stand around on stage and go through the motions playing our instruments. We engage with the crowd, take requests, and even teach you killer dance moves! Our dance band's mission is to create an immersive and exciting experience for everyone in attendance.

Professionalism

When you hire our dance band, you can expect high professionalism from start to finish. We're bona fide pros. We plan everything — from set up to break down — including working with you to create a customized playlist and special moments, setting everything up early, and taking care of all logistics. You can trust us to entertain your audience and represent your event with unrivaled class and style.

Competitive Pricing

Despite being Vancouver's premier dance band, we keep our rates competitive, so you can expect exceptional value for your entertainment budget.

Dance Band FAQ

What type of music do you play?

Our legendary Vancouver dance band has a wide range of genres in our repertoire, including Top 40 hits, classic rock, funk, soul, and much more. And we're happy to customize our playlist to fit the desired style of your event — just ask!

How long do you typically perform on stage?

We usually perform for 2-3 hours, but our musicians can adjust the set length to fit your event schedule. Tell us about your event, and we'll help make it one to remember.

Does your dance band provide its own equipment?

Yes, our band provides all of our own professional-level sound and lighting equipment. Got something specific in mind? Let us know!

Can we request specific songs?

Absolutely — name your favorites! Our dance band is happy to take requests and customize our playlist to fit your event's specific needs.

Do you require a deposit to book your band's services?

Yes, we require a deposit to secure your booking. The deposit amount varies depending on the type and size of the event. We're happy to discuss details.

What's your cancellation policy?

Our cancellation policy varies depending on the circumstances, but we always strive to be fair and reasonable. Again, we're happy to discuss this with you.

Do you travel outside of your local area?

Yes, while our dance band is based in the Greater Vancouver area, we travel around the globe for various events. Additional fees apply depending on the distance and logistics.

Do you have liability insurance?

Yes, we carry liability insurance to ensure our clients' and guests' safety and protection.

How far in advance should we book your music band services?

Our dance band is typically in demand throughout the year, so we recommend booking as early as possible to secure your desired date. However, we understand that sometimes events come up last minute, and we will do our best to accommodate your needs.

How do we book your services?
